Rev. G . Alex Steinmiller, C.P.

Rev. Alex Steinmiller, C.P., is a Catholic priest and missionary. He belongs to a congregation of missionaries called the Passionists, who work with the poor and marginalized in 58 countries. The Passionists have been located in Ensley at Holy Family Parish and school since 1937. Fr. Steinmiller is the President of Holly Family Cristo Rey Catholic High School. The school included 160 students from families who cannot afford a college preparatory education. Every student works their way through high school in the Corporate Internship Program. In this program students contribute to their tuition by holding a once-a-week, entry level, corporate job. The school is in its third year of operation. Fr. Steinmiller spent 30 years developing programs with at-risk young adults, 13-30 years of age, in Detroit and San Antonio. He co-founded Life Directions which continues in its 38th year of work in 4 cities. He holds a Masters Degree in Divinity from the Catholic Theological Union at Chicago. He has done extensive work in the area of non-violence and male spirituality.
